Stewardship Expectations of Members

Our expectations of members are summed up in the "four P's" mentioned below:
 Presence, Participation, Practice, and Pledge.

Being a member of our beloved community is a big commitment that we all share together. Please reach into your heart and let us know what your planned giving to your church is in each of these areas for 2010 (Feel free to attach a separate sheet if you need more room to write.) Please be generous and remember the more that you give of yourself, the more you will get in return. Thank you in advance.

My Contributions for the Year 2010 to UUCFL

Presence. We expect our members to attend worship services regularly unless special circumstances prevent. We value your presence, and miss you when you're not there.

I will be at Sunday Services
 _____ throughout the year

Participation. We expect our members to participate in the life of UUCFL: to join a committee, teach a class (children, youth, or adult), be active in an RE class, sing with the choir, join a covenant group, get involved with special projects, help with Sunday greeting or coffee set-up and clean-up, or be an office volunteer. Find the form and level of participation that works for you.

My Participation will be in the areas of :

Practice. We expect our members to practice their religion. This may be done through spiritual practices of meditation, prayer, or ritual; through social action for peace and justice; through active caring and ministry to one another — or any deliberate personal program to embody Unitarian Universalist principles in daily life. Unitarian Universalism is a faith which calls on us to live it in all aspects of life. If you were accused of being a Unitarian Universalist, would there be enough evidence for a conviction? We expect members to provide ample evidence every day.

I plan to Practice my UU Principles by:

Pledge. We expect our members to support financially the vision and the dreams of our Unitarian Universalist Church of Fort Lauderdale by making a pledge of regular contributions.

My Financial Pledge for 2010 will be
 $ _____ per month

Please feel free to use the charts below to reference if you find them helpful in preparing your financial pledge to UUCFL .
 If you have further questions, please consult a member of the Stewardship Committee, Rev Gail or President Ken Beier.
 Thank you in advance for your generosity.
